

Sex and Relationships Education for pupils with SEN

This course examines the status of SRE within the special school curriculum. It looks in detail at the statutory Guidance. Approaches to teaching intimate content to pupils with communication difficulties and language delay are suggested and demonstrated with visual material. The required content of an SRE policy, and methods of recording and assessing progress are discussed.

Suitable for teachers and for PSHE Co-ordinators